4. AGENDA

- Follow up on previous agenda/action items
 - New CODGC Account- still in the works. Ryan brought in Stumptown's Articles of Incorporation. They are registered as a 501(c)(7). Justin Ringer to look at rules and regulations associated with being a 501(c)(7) and will report back at the next meeting
 - Reconciliation of outstanding invoices with Redmond Parks Foundation- Per Ryan, there has been communication but no movement at this time. Their next meeting is March 5th
- Upcoming Events
 - Puttapalooza- Per Carey, they are good to go and are feeling pretty dialed in. Mainly will need help with cleanup after the event.
 - DiscGo Ball-
 - Will need help in the following areas:
 - Need extra sponsors
 - Clean up Sunday
 - Spotters at pond
 - Doubles Friday eve
 - Tee signs Friday eve
 - People to run field events
 - Great new website- thank you Carey and Five Talent!
 - Borilla Growlers, HukLab, Born 2B Fly, COCC and CODGC will all have booths/tables.
- Membership Cards
 - Carey to follow up on a lead for membership cards with a reusable scorecard on the back.
 - Consensus was to have a general card, will write on names, use sticker to update year as members renew.
- Club Merchandise
 - Eric H suggested ordering CODGC shirts and hats to sell, starting with a small order to gauge interest then going from there. He will research prices and printing around town and report back.
- Work Parties/Needs
 - Pine Nursery- March 30th. Ryan working with Bend Parks and Recreation regarding ordering collars for alternate pin placements.
 - Sisters- May 11th. Discussion regarding rubber pads vs concrete. Consensus was to pull the rubber pads which can be used for future temp courses or courses on National Forest land. It sounds like Sisters Recreation district is willing to help out with cash.
- Chris Quinn Grant
 - Chris Quinn had contacted group via Janine in regards to writing a grant for a new disc golf course as a class project. He was put in contact with Jeff Myers who pointed him in the right direction in regards to contacts with local parks and recreation districts and other land management agencies. Chris would like to touch base with Ryan and Justin for further information.

- New Business

- March 19th public meeting- Dylan looking into reserving meeting space at Platypus Pub. Sally stressed that these public meetings need to be much more structured in that we stick to the agenda and allow time for public comment. Meeting will be publicized and agenda posted 2 weeks prior to meeting.
- Discussion regarding sending letters out to local governing agencies expressing our need/interest in a new disc golf course. Jeff to spearhead drafting a letter. Discussion regarding Tumalo State Park and LaPine State Parks as potential sites.
- No update at this time regarding Vibram Birdie Bash.
- Justin Ringer looking into the Trilogy Challenge.
